Re: Partch v. Columbia Bank

Dear Mr. Dunn:

Our client Greg Partch made us aware of your December 29, 2016, letter regarding an "outstanding account." Please be advised that Kevin Roberts represents Mr. Partch regarding this matter, and all correspondence and communication needs to be directed through our office. Mr. Roberts is out of town for a family emergency in Montana, and is presently unavailable to address this matter. You should be aware that Columbia Bank's counsel has been directed by the Court to deposit the funds you are referring to in your letter into the registry of the court so that the judge can determine the validity of the lien.

Please confirm that you will not submit Mr. Partch to collections, as it will cause our client additional and unnecessary damages related to the disputed attorney lien.

ROBERTS | FREEBOURN, PLLC

Very truly yours,

Chad Freebourn
